

Executive Pharmacovigilance – Quality Management Team

Bluefish is looking for profiles to fill the position of Executive, Pharmacovigilance, contributing to the accomplishment of the Pharmacovigilance function objectives. The position will report to Head of Pharmacovigilance India.

Location: Bangalore, India

Selection of responsibilities to be held in Bluefish:

- Quality review of signal management reports
- Quality review of Risk Management Plan (RMP)
- Quality review of RMP overview tracker.
- Quality review of Addendum to Clinical Overview (ACO)
- Quality review of Periodic Safety Update Report (PSUR)
- Quality review of the pharmacovigilance system master file (PSMF)
- Collate and finalise annual quality plan.
- Monitoring of Deviation and CAPA status
- Quality review of documents/responses being submitted to the competent authorities
- Quality review of tracker for competent authority communication request from RA.
- Ensuring proper archival of PV documents as per SOP

Qualification /Previous experience:

- Graduation in life science (B.Pharm/ M.Pharm/ other life sciences) with at least 3 years of experience
- Excellent computer skills, including Word and Excel in a Microsoft Windows environment
- Must have thorough knowledge of systems, processes and procedures related to pharmacovigilance
- Must have good communication and problem-solving skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Personal development through self-learning

Bluefish Pharmaceuticals

Founded and headquartered in Sweden, Bluefish Pharmaceuticals has become one of the most progressive generic pharmaceuticals companies. At Bluefish, we strive to make quality medicines accessible to more people. We create value in the full pharmaceutical chain from developing to manufacturing and successful marketing. We take pride in doing this in an innovative, responsible and cost-efficient way. Please visit our website for more information: www.bluefishpharma.com

To apply

Send your application (CV and cover letter) to Praveen Maddi, Head of Pharmacovigilance India via E-mail: praveen.maddi@bluefishpharma.com.

We will continuously review applications, so do not wait to submit your credentials.